◆ Session Limits Warning

Protocols can be set up to limit the number of appointments for a specific visit type in a time period. For example, a provider may want 3 CPX's in the morning and 3 in the afternoon. When you try and schedule a 4th CPX in the morning, the above warning will appear indicating you are breaking the rule.

◆ Overbooking Warning

This warning will appear whenever you choose to book an appointment at the same time as one already scheduled. If you choose Overrule, you will continue to double book the appointment. If you select Cancel, you will be taken back to the Make Appointment Window to choose another appointment time for the patient.

 Subject: Re: [CON-GEN] Rodda in Sunderland

Dear John,

I can't help you with information but I do have an Emma Jane Bosankoe who married Joseph Edwin Profitt about 1905
 Emmas was christened 1 Jun 1873, her parents were William Bosancoe & Jenny Bishop..
~~Williams was christened 26 mar 1835 at St Agnes near Truro & his parents were Thomas Bosancoe & Ann....~~
 Just in case this information comes in handy somewhere along the line....

Hi folks,

Searching through Sunderland library this morning for information on my Bosanko forefathers burial places when I came across the following.

"Buried on 14th December 1936 at Sunderland Cemetery, Margaret Rodda aged 17, daughter of James Rodda, died in Sunderland Memorial Hospital".

Hope it's of use to someone.

Best wishes

John Bosanko

I have Win 95 installed on my computer and I have been give a copy of Win 98 that I want to install. It is not, however an upgrade version, but a new instal version. How can I delete Win 95 and install Win 98? Do I have to delete it through DOS? Any help will be greatly appreciated. Many thanks Norm.

Norm, the only way to uninstall windows is through DOS. Make sure you have CDrom support in DOS first though, and make sure your pc has the HD space and RAM to support W98. Also, after using this method and installing W98 any other programs on the pc will NOT work. Boot to DOS, type CD:\ to make sure you have a command prompt that looks like C:\> and then type: smartdrv and hit enter. then type deltree windows and hit enter and then y at the prompt . When you do this Windows will be gone. Be sure you want to do this.

Subject: Re: BOSANKO, BOSANCO, BESANCO, BOSANQUET and

Hi Faith,

Thanks for getting back to me.

I, sorry but I haven't got much info as yet, as I have not been doing my family tree for very long. I asked for the 1861 census for bosanko from the CFHS but he was not on there. Maybe I should have asked for the other spellings as well. I have written off for William and Elizabeth's Marriage Record from the parish records at Cornwall Record Office but have not received it back as yet.

I do not know the details of their Children's Marriages, as yet, except that Richard married Mary Jane Verran

Someone from the Cornwall Roosweb mailing list said that she had been checking the St Agnus parish records for 1810 onwards for someone else and there were no Bosanko's there. She also said that the records are on the IGI for 1806 and 1808. I checked this but also found no Bosanko's. So I only presume from this that he was not born there, as suggested in the 1871 census. I am hoping that when I receive his marriage record it may tell me who his father was, and so that may help.

I do not know where my grandfather got the name Redvers from. Apparently it is a surname as well as a Christian name, but it does not appear on either side of his family tree as yet.

You asked for the family tree from Alfred and Margaret back. Do you want Margaret Bournes side as well. Her father was Noah Bourne b. 19 Aug 1864 in Coventry and her Mother was Ann Marie Hitchens b. 31 Dec 1866 in Cheslyn Hay Staffordshire. More details if needed.

Most of the details you have for Alfred except that his Mother Alma Roberts parents were ? Simon Roberts and Mary born in Roche Cornwall. (the reason that I have ? Simon is that Alma appears in the 1871 census with her Mother Mary a widow, sister Betsey and Brother Thomas. I found Betsey on the IGI with mother Mary and father Simon chr 12 Nov 1815 Father Joseph mother Betsey IGI batch P016511. There were other Children as well but not Alma) I need to get a birth cert for Alma but as her dates vary between 1871 and 1881 census I have not done that as yet.

~~Mary Jane Verran the wife of Richard was Chr 24 Aug 1845 in Gwennap. Her parents were John Verran b. 1802 and died 17 Sept 1849 in Gwennap and Alice Spargo Chr 6 Dec 1807, d 12 Feb 1848. Alice's parents were John Spargo b 1771 m 26 Sep 1791 to Joanna Carne b 1773 all in Gwennap. John's parents were Thomas Spargo b 1723 m 16 Nov 1751 in Perranarworthal to Alice Roberts b abt 1727. All this info came from the IGI so needs to be checked.~~

By for now, thanks again for your help.

Subject: Re: BOSANKO, BOSANCO, BESANCO, BOSANQUET and
 Hi Fayth,

I have also been researching this surname, as it is my maiden name. Here is the info I have on my family tree at the present.

William Besanko b 1808 in St Agnus (according to 1871 census, but have not found him in St Agnus as yet) married Elizabeth Bray (b 1806 in Gwennap) on 13 feb 1836 in Gwennap. 1806

Their children were:- Elizabeth Chr 5 mar 1837 in Gwennap; Caroline chr 10 Apr 1838 Wesleyan Methodist, Carharrack; and Richard chr 19 mar 1843 in Gwennap.

Richard married Mary Jane Verran (b 24 aug 1843) in Gwennap.

Their children were:- Caroline b 1868 in Gwennap; Elizabeth b 1870 in Gwennap; and William born May 1871 in Gwennap.

William married Alma Roberts born either 1860 or 63 in St Austell (different dates from 1881 and 1871 census).

Their children were:- William (died WW1 1918); Laura (died a maid in 1960); Alfred Redvers Bosankoe b 1902 in Bugle died 1972 in Bridgwater Somerset my grandfather)

Alfred married Margaret Bourne and had several children but they all died as babies except my father Gerald Bosankoe (still living).

As you can see the spelling of the surname has changed from Besanko to Bosankoe over the years.

If you have any info on this family especially William b ? 1808 I would be grateful.

I have a fair bit of info on other Bosanko's that a John Bosanko sent me. His e-mail address is jbosanko@mcmail.com.

Also from a web page www.alphalink.com.au/~tomluke/BESANKO.wbg. Where I found the nearest William Besanko to the one I have been looking for, as being born in 1810 in Wedron and his parents being married in Illogan (not far from St Agnus) and dying in Gwennap, where William lived. But at the moment I have no ideal if this is the one and same William.

PITTS. – Christine (née Bosankoe). Dear wife of David, mother of Rebecca, Jessica and Matthew. Passed away peacefully at home on October 7th, 2007, with all her family around her, after a brave fight against cancer. Free from pain at last, God keep you in His care. Words cannot express how much we loved you and how much you will be missed by all who knew you. You will be forever in our hearts. – Love Dad, Norma and her brother David.

by all who know him. You will be forever in our hearts. - Love Dad, Momma and her sister. Words cannot express how much we loved you and how much you will be missed.
Missing her after a while isn't always; sweetest, just from him at her. God keep you in His Mercy. Prayed daily peacefully at home on October 31st 2003 with all her family.
MILIE - Christine (nee Bogdanov) Dear wife of David, mother of Keressa, Jessica and Tanner. 1958-2003. 45 years old.

Christine Bogdanov - 10/31/2003
